

EXTENDED DEFENDER MOUSE PAD

XXL GAMING MOUSE PAD

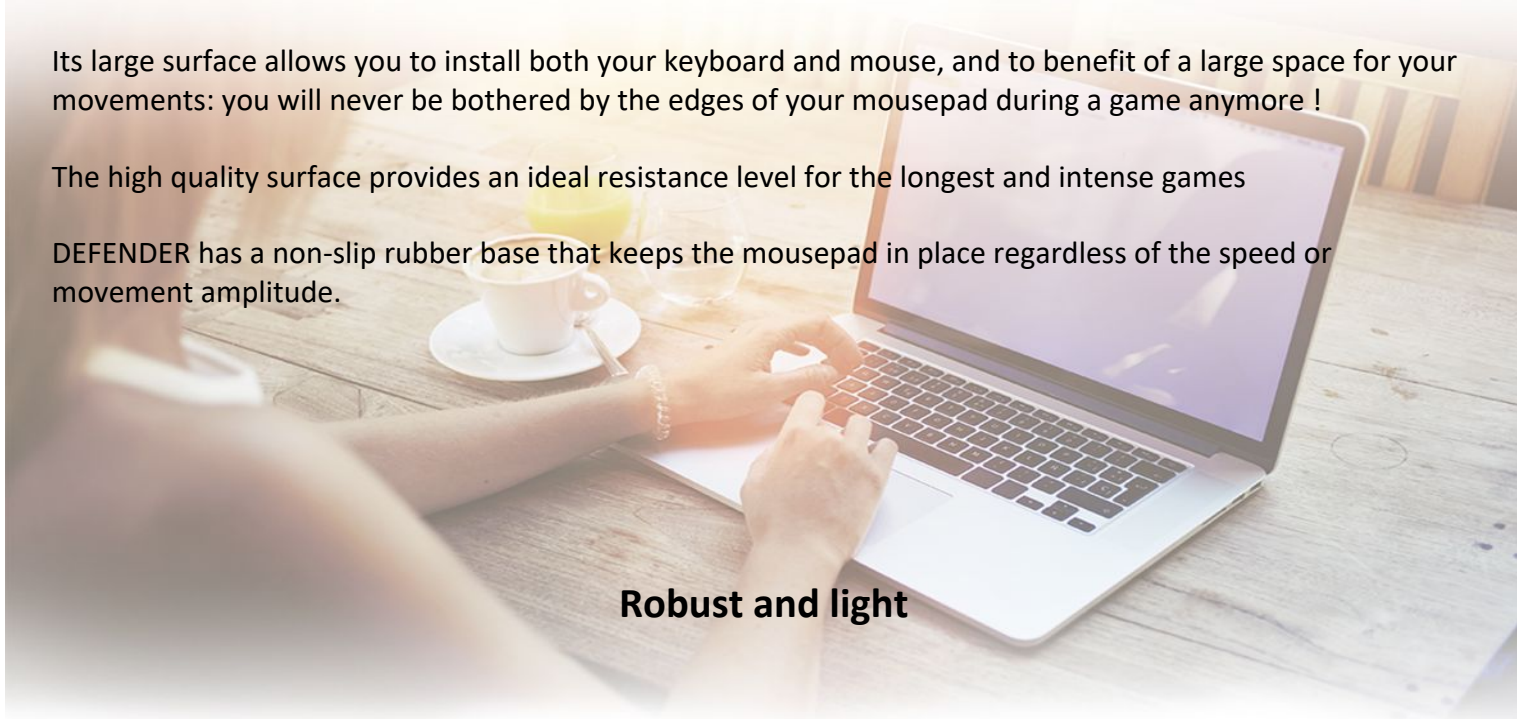

DEFENDER has a fabric and rubber surface coating with a perfect balance between speed and control.

Its large surface allows you to install both your keyboard and mouse, and to benefit of a large space for your movements: you will never be bothered by the edges of your mousepad during a game anymore !

The high quality surface provides an ideal resistance level for the longest and intense games

DEFENDER has a non-slip rubber base that keeps the mousepad in place regardless of the speed or movement amplitude.

Robust and light
